that the question might have arisen in the indorser's mind, why were its deposits to be used at all for outside operations? As for the board of trustees, they appear to have been the merest dummies, whose functions were confined to bringing the bank 'business,' without being at all particular as to how the 'business' was transacted. We say no amount of law nor official supervision can prevent 'business' was transacted. We say no amount of law nor official supervision can prevent financiering of this character. Individual inquiries on the part of depositors' committee, into the character of the men to whom they intrust their money, as well as a little occasional scrutiny of its novel methods of transacting 'outside business,' would be worth more in the way of prevention than official locking of doors after horses have been stolen. COTTON TIE.

MANUFACTURED BY THE ST. LOUIS COTTON TIE CO. THIS Tie is without buckle or button, but with side slots, making a most secure fastening, and s regards strength, we refer to the following cartifi-Gertlemen—After repeated trials of your Hoop Tie, I am convinced of the following: 1st. It is as strong or stronger than any other Tie in use.

2d. It is easily and rapidly fastened.

3d. It leaves the ends in neat, clean shape, making better stowage.

In a word, I can find no fault with it, and would be pleased to see it universally used.
